Please join the Friends of Fairfax County Archaeology and Cultural Resources, Gunston Hall Plantation, and the Archaeology and Collections Branch of the Fairfax County Park Authority in hosting an archaeological symposium on:

Underwater Archaeology in the Mid-Atlantic

Saturday, March 4th 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM
At Gunston Hall, Mason Neck, VA

John Broadwater
New Directions for Underwater Archaeology in Virginia

Susan Langley Maryland State Underwater Archaeologist
The Mallows Bay Potomac River National Marine Sanctuary
A Work in Progress

Pete Lesher The Chesapeake Maritime Museum
Setting the Scene: Marine Activity on the Potomac and Chesapeake in the 18th Century

Jason Lunze Jamestown Rediscovery Foundation
The recently recovered 18th Century Alexandria Ship and the Diffusion of Continental Shipbuilding Traditions to the 17th and 18th Century New England

Panel Discussion: Contemporary Challenges in Maritime Archaeology and Preservation

Advance registration is available on the Gunston Hall website (www.gunstonhall.org).
Act Now! $45 for members of FOFA and Docents and Friends of Gunston Hall.
$55 for members of the public before February 28, 2017 ($5 surcharge afterwards).

The fee includes the program and a tour of Gunston Hall.
Continental breakfast and a lunch will also be provided.